

MOTI THE GOBILN PRINCE

Moti was young Goblin Prince who lived in the Great Oak Palace in the centre of his father's kingdom. He was rude, boastful and thoughtless.

Macto, his father, King of all the Woodland Goblins, was old and wise. He knew that soon it would be time to hand over his land to his son, Prince Moti. He loved his son very much, but King Macto wondered how he could help his son to become a good and wise ruler. So, he decided to set his son an impossible quest.....
